You are about to place an order for an online copy of a record that has been cleared for public access (it has an access status of Open or Open with exception).

How will I access the online copy?

Once your payment is received, we will make an image of each page of the record and a searchable PDF available online for viewing in RecordSearch.

When will the online copy be available?

We will notify you by email (if you have provided a valid email address) when the online copy is available.

Our standard of service is to provide online copies of records which at the time of ordering had been cleared for public access within 30 business days of receiving your paid request.
